HAVE in press, and will publish, January 23d, by the author of Walks and Talks of an American Farmer in England,

A JOURNEY IN THE
SEABOARD SLAVE STATES,
By Frederick Law Olmsted.

One volume, 12mo. 725 pages, with wood cuts. Price $1 50

This work is written in the quiet, candid, good-humored, and manly style which rendered the author's previous narrative of travel so widely popular. The descriptions of Southern Life and Scenery are picturesque and dramatic, and much more detailed and accurate than those of most other writers. The book, in fact, offers just that kind of information about the South and its institutions, which the public now demands; less of what is extraordinary and exceptional, and more of that which illustrates every-day life and general character, than has before been attempted. In matters of controversy, the author is careful and courteous, but expresses his own conclusions frankly and unmistakeably.

The Southern Cultivator predicts that this book will have "greater influence on the minds of voters," than Uncle Tom's Cabin has had.

The New York Daily Times says of it: "This work will be by far the best yet published on the subject."

The New Orleans Delta observes of the author:—"Prejudiced as his opinions were, he was not a wilfully dishonest man or an unfair writer. We would welcome a few more men of his calibre amongst us—prejudiced, but manly and honest."

IMPORTANT TO EVERYBODY.

FOR the last three years I have been engaged in a business, known only to myself, and comparatively a few others, whom I have instructed for the sum of $500 each, which has averaged me at the rate of from $3,000 to $5,000 per annum, and having made arrangements to go to Europe next Spring, to engage in the same business, I am desirous of giving full instructions in the Art to every person who will remit me the sum of One Dollar. I am induced from the success I have been favored with, and the many happy acknowledgments I have received from those I have instructed in the Art, and who are now making from $10 to $15 per day, to give every person a chance to come into possession of this valuable means of making a small fortune. There is no Humbug about the business herein alluded to. References of the best class can be given as regards its character; and I can also refer to persons in Philadelphia as well as in this city, who have, within four months embarked in the business, and who will testify that they are making from $8 to $15 per day at the same. It is a business in which either ladies or gentlemen can engage, and with perfect ease make a very handsome income. Several ladies in various parts of Pennsylvania and Maryland, whom I have instructed in the Art, are now clearing from $3 to $6 per day. It is a Genteel Business, and but a few shillings are required to start it. Upon receipt of $1,00, I will immediately send to the applicant a printed circular, containing full instructions in the Art, which will be perfectly understood upon being once read.

of a superior character. The work discusses all subjects openly and freely, but in a manner which can give no offence, even to the most fastidious—as is fully acknowledged by the secular and religious press of all denominations who award the NATIONAL, at the same time of being not only the cheapest but the best of the religious magazines in the United States, and one which should be on the table of every family in the land.

Orders for the Magazine may be directed to Carlton & Phillips, 200 Mulberry street, New York; Swormstedt & Poe, Cincinnati; W. M. Doughty, J. L. Read, Pittsburgh; and J. P. Magee, Boston.

ATROCIOUS JUDGES!
LIVES OF JUDGES,
INFAMOUS AS
Tools of Tyranny and Instruments of Oppression!
BY JOHN, LORD CAMPBELL.
With an Appendix, containing the
CAS OF PASSMORE WILLIAMSON.
Edited, with an Introduction and Notes,
BY RICHARD HILDRETH.
One Volume, 420 pages, 12mo. Price $1,00.

THE various man-hunting expeditions which have, within the last few years, been made into the North, and the numerous trials, including the Jerry, the Sims, the Burns, and similar cases, and the crowning act of infamy enacted by have excited the profoundest indignation and alarm. The Publishers believe, therefore, that this amply attested and clearly drawn record of what judges have done, will lead the people to see what, if unchecked, judges may still do.

JUDGE KANE UPON PASSMORE WILLIAMSON.

NOW READY!
LANMERE.
By Julia C. R. Dorr.
Author of "Farmingdale."
1 vol. 12 mo. 447 pd. Price $1,25

The scene of this story is laid in Lanmere, a pleasan country village. The principal persons are as follows:—

MRS. ALLISON,
A strict mother, cold immovable as stone;
MARGARET ALLISON,
A pattern of female placidity and propriety;
BESSIE ALLISON,
A little mischief—sweet, pretty and loveable;
MR. FLOYD,
The Village Pastor—a man of goodness, truth and piety
WILLIAM WENTWORTH,
Honest and honorable—truthful and self-sacrificing
WALLACE BUCHANANN,
A mystery to all who do not know him;
ELLEN WENTWORTH,
Bessie's friend and confidant;
PAUL WARREN,
A faithful minister, without the ostentation of outward piety;
GRACE WARREN,
His sister—a true woman; the consoler of the afflicted and the supporter of the lowly.

Other characters are introduced, and the story is replete with varied incidents and descriptions. In the gradual unfolding of the characters of the two sisters, Bessie and Margaret, the author has displayed consummate skill; and she has imbued her narrative with such interest, that the reader is chained to her pages from first to last.

PIANOS AND MELODEONS ONLY

IN ALL LARGE CITIES the PIANO and MELODEON trade is a department by itself, requiring the entire attention of the manufacturer or dealer. Believing that such an establishment can be sustained in this Musical City, the subscriber will devote his time to the trade in Pianos and Melodeons exclusively.

During the past week he has received an additional supply to his before extensive stock and now offers a complete assortment of very superior 6, 6¼, 6¾, 6⅞ and 7 octaves Pianos, in rich and beautiful cases, chaste but not gaudy, from manufacturers of established and unequalled reputation, viz:

Lighte, Newton & Bradbury, New York.
John B. Dunham, New York.
Hallet, Davis & Co., Boston.
Mason & Hamlin's Model Melodeons.

The subscriber regulates and tunes his Pianos and Melodeons if necessary after they arrive in Milwaukee, himself personally, thereby insuring as perfect order and tune in the instrument as when it left the manufactory.

GREAT NEWS!

BANKS ELECTED SPEAKER ! !

It is with unfeigned gratification that we announce the election of Nathaniel P. Banks, the Republican candidate, as Speaker of the U. S. House of Representatives. This glorious consummation was effected on Saturday last. The particulars will be found under the telegraph head. Thanks to Northern Pluck and Western Backbone for this signal triumph over the Sham Democracy, Slavery Propagandism and bogus Americanism!

Reeder's Response to Pierce.—We publish this morning Gov. Reeder's prompt, spirited and manly reply, for himself and his People in Kansas, to the slanderous, cowardly and contemptible message of President Pierce, denouncing the Free State men and taking sides with the Border Ruffians. It has the ring of the true metal and must, we would fain believe, call up answering and avenging echoes in every Free State of the Union.

Murder in Manitowoc.—We copy this morning from the Manitowoc Tribune, the details of a horrid murder lately committed in that county.

Hon. C. Billinghurst, who receives many letters of inquiry for "Wyandott Corn," has sent us a communication on the subject.

The details of the Cincinnati Tragedy, a telegraphic account of which we published early last week, will be found in our columns.

We have an interesting letter from Mr. C J. Russell, who is busily engaged in collecting funds to aid Hannah Johnson.

The Legislature—Early Adjournment.

We do not remember a Session of our State Legislature when there was so little business of public importance pending, as the present. Even the usual pressure of local legislation is wanting; and the Lobby has not found an apology to organize. Time seems to hang heavy on the hands of the Members, and it is only by dint of short sittings and frequent adjournments that they can keep business enough on their tables to maintain the show of work. This is especially fortunate, in the peculiar state of affairs in the Executive Department, and the doubtful condition of the Treasury. We are glad to see, therefore, that the Senate, realizing this fact, has passed a resolution to receive no new business after the 15th instant, and to adjourn finally on the 25th. As this will leave ample time for the disposal of all pending questions and measures of general interest, we trust that the Assembly will promptly concur.

From Our New York Correspondent.

New York, Jan 29, 1856.

Snow, Snow, Snow, nothing but snow, above, below, around, our streets, some of the narrower ones, have been impassible for some weeks already by reason of the accumulation of snow, and this prolongs the embargo, which is serious, as an interruption to transportation, and consequently to sales and shipment of merchandize and produce. The temperature is mild, and the flakes fall silently and equally, making a smooth, pure [illegible] ded for in this material as the city, and the farmers will welcome this provision more than we do; for with them it is both a protection and a nourishment to the wheat fields, and a path to the woods and swamps for the wood cutters' teams. It is all wisely ordered, we cannot doubt, and so we accept it. Our bay and river are obstructed a good deal with ice, but yet ships arrive and depart, especially steamers, which have the mastery over ice and tides, as well as winds.

The latest accounts from Europe leave little rational ground, as it seems to me, for expecting peace until after a further and a bloodier struggle, for which all the parties to the war seem to be bending all their energies in preparations on the most gigantic scale. Happy our own land! happy, if we can only be content with happiness, and abundance, and overflowing prosperity, and not suffer ourselves, in the furtherance of any personal ambition or partizan success, to be hurried into unnecessary war. I think so unfavorably of Mr. Pierce and Mr. Cushing as to believe that they would even risk a rupture with England at this juncture, and thus involve this country in the tremendous conflict now going on in Europe, if by so doing they could, increase the chances of perpetuating their own power for another term, and especially if they could thereby divert the deep feeling of the free States from the enormities of the Kansas-Nebraska contest.

It is lamentable, indeed, that at such a crisis the House of Representatives should still be unorganized—yet, lamentable as that is, I would rather it should never be organized than to give up the principle of opposition to Slavery extension, upon which the decided majority of the House was chosen. I still hope and believe that Mr. Banks will succeed, and that many days cannot elapse without a choice.

As for the President's Kansas Message, it strikes me as the most disreputable paper ever issued by the Chief Magistrate of this nation. It is false in its statements, and base in its motives, for it is an almost undisguised bid for Southern support at the Cincinnati Convention. Gov. Reeder, it may not be doubted, will answer the unpardonable denunciation of his course in the message; and if he will speak out fully and unreservedly, he can make an impression on the country to the disadvantage of Messrs. Pierce, Cushing and Davis, the trio who are responsible mainly for this great outrage, that will make even them to shrink before public scorn and indignation.

Meantime the freemen of Kansas must be sustained. Reliance upon the federal arm for relief is seen to be hopeless—they must rely upon their own strong arms and bold hearts, and upon the sympathy and active cooperation of their brother freemen everywhere, in providing recruits, and money, and rifles. If the President will not protect them, they must, with the aid of their brethren elsewhere, protect themselves. From this city they will have material aid; and so I hope from the body of this state, and from all the other free states. It is a common cause, and should be met by a common effort. It is vain to cry "Peace, Peace," when there is no peace, except that which is to be obtained by abject submission, than which any conceivable state of things is better.

There are many eyes fixed upon your Supreme Court, in the process now pending before it—to oust an usurper. We have much faith, yet some fear. The wrong seems manifest; whether the remedy is as certain seems doubtful even to the hopeful. The indecent pertinacity, however, of your Att'y Gen'l, in claiming as a right the control and management of a suit, of which all his interest, personal and political, compel him to desire the failure, gives confidence to the hope that the Court will sustain the right, and serves to open the eyes even of the doubting to the alleged frauds whereby Mr. Barstow has received the certificate of the canvassers, since one of his confederates, who has possibly profited by the same frauds, insists upon conducting the trial against him. Every man can make that case his own, by simply asking himself whether, if obliged to sue a neighbor for trespass, in any other wrong, he would accept for his counsel that neighbor's partner, or confidential friend. Yet such is Mr. Smith's relation to Mr. Barstow.

Narrowing the Platform.

The American, organ of the Know Nothings in this State, announces its determination "to have done with fusion," and to set up, hereafter, for itself. It adds:

"The American platform embraces all, or nearly all, demanded by the Republican platform, and taking a wider range of view, embraces many questions of state and national reform which was ignored in the construction of the latter.

This "wider range" is to be found, we presume, in the restrictions proposed to be put upon Catholics, for their faith's sake. All that is practically valuable, or truly democratic in the K. N. platform, is taken from the Republican platform. The proscriptive features, however, are exclusively K. N. The Republican Platform, true to its name and to the genius of American Institutions, invites the co-operation of all men, without respect to creed, or birth-place, in the good work of resistance to the aggressions of Slavery and the restoration of the ancient landmarks. The K. N. platform, appealing to religious prejudice, addresses itself to "Protestants" only. We remember no such distinction in the Declaration of Independence, in the provisions of our Federal and State Constitutions, in the language of our laws, or in the armies which won our Liberties in '76, which vindicated American Rights in 1812, and which carried the eagles of the Republic in triumph to Mexico in 1847.

The Democracy Stand Firm.

The democratic phalanx in the House of Representatives says the Washington Union of the 30th ult., stand firm and fast. There is no wavering. On Friday evening another caucus was called, and was attended by a majority of the democratic members, and there, after a full and harmonious interchange of opinions, they unanimously decided as follows:

"Resolved, That we will adhere to our platform and our nominee."

This is the sentiment of the democracy of the Union. Everywhere the firm and united action of the democrats is applauded, and the slightest faltering now would mortify the noblest party that ever existed in any country. Let the answer be to all proposals from our opponents, that of Paul Jones in one of his conflicts, when asked if he had surrendered, and truly may we use his words in view of the great issues and contests upon which we are only entering; "Surrender!" said the hero; "Never! The battle has only begun!"—Milwaukee News.

Brave words, but hardly borne out by the recent acts of this same "democratic phalanx." Instead of "standing firm," they have dropped one candidate after another; jumped from Richardson to Orr, from Orr to Smith, from Smith to Aiken; joined hands with the Know-Nothings to elect a K. N. Speaker, but failed in the attempt, and with the aid of the same allies succeeded in staving off thus long, an organization of the House and in delaying the business of the country.—Great achievements these, assuredly, for the "phalanx."

"Wisconsin Journal of Education."—It is well known that, at the last annual meeting of the State Teachers' Association, a movement was made for the publication of an Educational journal, which should be the organ of the Association, and, it was hoped, a medium of communication between the State School Department, and the schools of the State. The following gentlemen were appointed a committee to carry out these views

J. L. Pickard, Platteville,
A. J. Craig, Milwaukee,
A. C. Spicer, Milton,
V. Butler, Kenosha,
D. Y. Kilgore, Madison,
W. C. Aeshis, Beloit,
W. Vanness, Fond du Lac,
Jno. G. McMynn, Racine

Mr. McMynn, the able and indefatigable teacher of the Racine Public School, is to be the resident editor for the current year, to whom communications are to be addressed. The committee have issued a Circular, in which they say

The Committee have made such arrangements as will, they feel confident, prove satisfactory to all concerned. They propose publishing such a journal as the importance of our educational interests demands. It will contain original essays and communications, as well as selections from current educational literature, and while no department of instruction, from the primary to the most advanced, will be neglected; while it will it will also, it is hoped, be a welcome visitor to every fireside in the State. It will fearlessly advocate the right of every child in the State to such an education as will qualify him to do his duty as a citizen and a patriot. And it will labor in connection with the State Superintendent to realize the benefits contemplated by our noble system of free education.

To secure the objects for which this journal is established, it must have a circulation. To obtain this, the Committee rely confidently upon the efforts of Teachers, and friends of education. They feel that they may with propriety appeal to every Teacher in the State to become a subscriber. The interests of the journal are identical with the interests of the Teachers. It is their property as well as their organ. We ask them then, to do, and do promptly, what they can to increase its circulation, and thus its usefulness.

We are authorized to state that District School Boards may subscribe for a copy for the District Library, and pay for the same out of the Library money. The State Superintendent has signified his willingness to make this journal his medium of communication with School Officers, and this, together with educational advertisements, will give it increased value to Teachers and School Boards.

With this statement of the objects for which the "Wisconsin Journal of Education" has been established, the Committee look with confidence for the cordial co-operation of those whom they address. The first number will be issued on the 1st of March next.

Madison Correspondence.—The Madison correspondent of the Free Democrat writes to that paper, as follows:

I understand that the Sentinel, American and Wisconsin have stopped taking telegraphic reports from Madison, and also withdrawn their correspondents, with the exception of the American, which is represented by Mr. Hicks, who is consequently the only correspondent out here beside myself.

This is a mistake, so far as the Sentinel is concerned. We have had and shall continue to have, thro' the Session, a regular correspondent at Madison, and intend to avail ourselves of the Telegraph also, whenever there is any news worth sending by that conveyance.

Republican Club at Kenosha.—The Republicans of Kenosha County meet at the Court House, on Friday next at 1 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of organizing a County Republican Club, for that County, and for the transaction of such business as may help to advance the Republican cause. We hope that these movements in Walworth and Kenosha counties will find ready imitators all over our State. Thorough and timely organization is indispensable to success.

Lake Winnebago—Wolf and Fox Rivers.—The Menasha Advocate says that Mr. Fitzgerald, the enterprising steamboat proprietor, has made his arrangements for running Steamboats daily during the running season from Menasha up the Lake to Fond du Lac, and from Menasha to New London on the Wolf and Berlin on the Fox River.

Illness of the Hon. B. C. Eastman.—We learn with unfeigned regret, from the Madison Patriot of Saturday last, that no hopes are entertained of the recovery of the Hon. Ben. C. Eastman, late Representative from the Western District of our State. Mr. Eastman has been very ill for many weeks and the Patriot says is now constantly failing.

Elk Shooting.—The Prescott Transcript of the 25th ult. says that John McLaughlin, of that town, recently shot five Elk, in the woods east of Prescott. They weighed over 400 pounds each and their meat sold for 7a10 cents per pound.

Saxe Recovering.—The Burlington (Vt.) Sentinel says, that John G. Saxe, after losing twenty of his lecture engagements by reason of sickness, is rapidly recovering and was to start for Cincinnati and the great West last week.

Frozen.—A gentleman who came from La Crosse, on Saturday, states that he saw three horses standing in the road, with a wagon attached, in which was the driver—all Frozen to death, but the wagon.—St. Paul Times.

Horrible Murder in Manitowoc.

The Manitowoc Tribune of Thursday last brings us the following particulars of a shocking murder committed in that County last week. The Demon of Blood seems to have broken loose in our State:

A horid murder was committed near the branch Mills in this County on Sunday evening last. We gather the following from the statement of one of the Coroner's jury, and it is a review of the evidence, which came before it. A German named John Martin Goetz, hearing a noise about his premises went out and found two men whom he ordered off, and on their refusing to leave attempted to drive them away. They commenced beating him with clubs and he called his son to his assistance, the boy received a severe blow on the head which knocked him down, and retreated to the house. When he left the two men were pounding his father with clubs and the appearance of the ground indicated a severe struggle.

When he again returned in company with a neighbor the men were gone, and groping about he stumbled over the corpse of his father, already stiffening in death.

Near the place where the body was found, two clubs newly cut and trimmed, were picked up, and an axe covered with blood and hair was also found lying near the spot. The head of the corpse was horribly mangled and bruised, the shoulders, arms and sides bore the marks of blows, inflicted with bludgeons. Goetz leaves a wife and six children, the youngest less than a year old.

We have seldom heard of a more aggravated case of homicide, and the bare recital of the outrage is sufficient to chill the blood with horror.—The boy has a large gash on the top of his head, which he says was inflicted with a club.

Sheriff Adams has offered a reward of $200 for the apprehension of the murderers, and the officers are on the track of those on whom suspicion rests.

Stand from Under!

Messrs. Editors:—The Washington County Democrat is coming down on you for commenting upon the statement of Mr. W. P. Barnes upon the DeBar tragedy. I think you had better get out of the way, or wind up your paper, as the blast from such a wind mill will be "tremenjous." Yours, JUSTICE

Barton, Washington Co., Feb. 1st.

Gov. Reeder in Reply to the President.

To the Editor of the N. Y. Tribune:—Sir: The special message of the President of the United States, communicated yesterday to Congress, assails not only myself personally, but also my constituents, whom inclination as well as duty imperiously demands of me to justify and protect. Entirely satisfied as I am with the course adopted, up to this time, by the people of Kansas—convinced that it has been dictated by a desire to preserve the peace, the reputation and the glory of our country—knowing that it has, at every stage, been characterized by the most conservative moderation and laudable regard for the rights of others—having seen at every step the plainest manifestation of the anxious desire to avoid even the semblance of encroachment or aggression, I should be false to every manly impulse and every sense of duty, if I allowed the aspersions of the message to pass unnoticed.

Unless the message shall incite and stimulate new invasions of our territory, and fresh outrages upon our citizens, it will produce to us no regret, as it has caused no surprise. After having seen our people trampled on, oppressed and robbed on the one hand by the invaders of their soil, and on the other by the influence, the authority, and the officers of the present administration; after having witnessed the cold-blooded murder of an unarmed and unoffending man is not only unmolested by the President who appointed him, but who has, perhaps, strengthened his official tenancy and his chances of promotion by the act; it is not at all surprising that we should, by the head of that administration, be misrepresented and perverted.

After having seen the Chief Magistrate during five organized invasions of our territory, unmoved by a single sympathy in favor of an unoffending people, innocent of all wrong, and laboring only to carry out faithfully for themselves the doctrine of self-government, and to build up and extend the greatness of our country—after having seen our invaders coming upon us armed (without reproof, if not without permission,) from the contents of the arsenals of the United States, establishing a system of martial law over life and property, regulated only by the uncontrolled will of vindictive and irresponsible men—a system under which life was taken and property destroyed; the highways obstructed; travellers seized, detained and searched; all the pursuits of life paralyzed, and the destruction and extermination of whole settlements threatened and evidently intended—backed up by the sanction and authority of the federal officers, who pledged publicly the co-operation of the President, and all based upon the fact that a man encouraged, perhaps aided by his friends, had made his escape from an arrest made on a constable's peace warrant,—after having thus seen our natural and legal protectors joining in the most atrocious measures of oppression and wrong, it is no matter of surprise to see misrepresentation of our position and our objects emanating from the same source.

This is not the mode nor the time in which to discuss the themes of the Message. Expecting, as I have a right to expect from the clearness of the exclusive title I am prepared to show, that I shall enjoy a seat and a voice on the floor of the House, I am willing patiently "to bide my time." At the proper time and place, however, I pledge myself to meet and expose the misstatements of facts and the errors of law and logic which it contains. I will show that there is nothing but cold cruelty and insult in the request of an appropriation to pay an army or a posse to prevent the people of Kansas from the commission of outrage and treason. I will show that the movement for a State Government is misstated as to the facts of its origin and progress, and that all we have done in this direction has been under the sanction of the precepts and examples of all the great men of the country for the last fifty years—of the legislation of Congress and the action of the Executive in repeated and well considered cases, and of a deliberate opinion of a high and distinguished Attorney General of the United States, and which, as it is a part of the archives of the Executive department, it is to be regretted the President did not consult before the delivery of the Message.

If it is illegality and incipient treason for a new state to be formed without an enabling act of Congress, I will show that fourteen senators of the United States hold their seats, and seven states stand in this Union by virtue of illegal and treasonable proceedings—that Congress has sanctioned revolution, illegality and treason, again and again; and that the rank and noxious weed has even flourished in the white house and the executive department; and having vindicated my people, I will also, with the utmost confidence of success, proceed to the minor and secondary task of vindicating myself in such a manner, I trust, as to show the attack to have been ill-advised and unfortunate.

As to the discussion in the message of the points involved in the contested seat, I shall meet them when the case is heard; and as the House is the sole constitutional judge of the qualifications of its own members, I trust that the minds of members may be kept open and unprejudiced until they shall hear the law and the facts of the case, and that whether the discussion by the executive of some of the points involved has been made because they are incidental to another subject, or aimed and intended to prejudice my claim, I hope in either case that both sides may be heard before a decision.

This hasty note has swelled to an unpremeditated length. Its object is only to solicit from the House and the public a suspension of judgment as to the position and action of our people—as to my right to a seat, and to the charges against me in the Message, until I can be heard.

Very respectfully, yours,
A. H. REEDER.

Washington City, Jan. 25, 1856.

Man Shot.—A difficulty occurred on Monday evening last, between John Wilson and John Watson, at the Plow Inn, about five miles east of this village, which resulted in the shooting of Watson by Wilson. The two were partners in liquor selling business, and had a dispute about their funds, from which a quarrel sprung up, and blows passed, when Wilson drew from his pocket a pistol and shot his partner, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Watson, we understand, has since died.

Watson was examined on Tuesday, before Eber Polk, Esq., and the testimony going to show that Wilson acted entirely in self defence, he was acquitted.—Mineral Point Tribune.

Special Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Madison, Friday, Feb. 1.

Messrs. Editors:—The usual business has gone on in the Senate to-day. Among other things passed, was the resolution of Mr. Sutherland, asking that our Northern Lakes and Western Rivers may receive from Congress the attention they deserve. This is all just and proper. They should be thus dealt by, but as long as we have at the Head of Affairs, a President who will veto all such bills, on the stale plea of their being unconstitutional, why continue to urge such resolutions as these? The only hope for us in the West is the election of a President, whose sympathies are not confined to the sea board and who will not bow in abject submission to the celebrated Virginia resolutions of '98 and their interpretation by Southern politicians. If we want our harbor and rivers improved, we must unite as one man, and say to our President, it must be done.

Of political news there is very little stirring. The lobbies are filling up; the third house bids fair to be numerous and powerful.

Mr. Barry, State Superintendent, has the Hall to-night for a lecture on Capital Punishment. He opposes the restoration of the Death Penalty. He is said to be a fine speaker, and all that can be said on that side of the question may be expected to be fairly stated, & more fairly, it is to be hoped, than the article on Mr. Gridley's lecture, in the Free Democrat. The views of that gentleman did not suit the writer, but that should have been no reason for such a violent assault on a gentleman who, no doubt, entertains honestly the opinions which he expressed. I think, however, that it was unfortunate that a clergyman should have given the lecture he did, and it is earnestly hoped that no more of the cloth will come here on a similar errand. It does more injury than good.

The Senate has adjourned over till Monday afternoon. Sigma.

Wyandott Corn.

House of Representatives,
Washington, Jan. 28, 1856.

Messrs. Editors:—Numerous applications have been made to me for Wyandott Corn from the Patent office. I suspect that "Wyandott Corn" is either a hoax or an ingenious speculation, as there is no such corn at the Patent office. I have heard that it may be procured somewhere in the North-west at about forty dollars per bushel. Very respectfully yours

C. BILLINGHURST.

For the Daily Sentinel.

The Hannah Johnson Fund—Free Suffrage.

Messrs. Editors.—I am happy to furnish the readers of your paper with a statement of my success in the "Hannah Johnson" fund and suffrage question. I am sorry I have not met with better success than I have. But the weather for the past month has been so cold that I have not been able to do as well as I might otherwise have done. Yet I have not been entirely idle. I have done something to aid the fund. I will give a statement of the money I have collected and it can be seen from the report of the Sentinel how much is necessary to accomplish the object sought. Racine, 41,54, Burlington, 24,12; Spring Prarie, 10,75, Elkhorn, 16,50, Delevan, 6,00, Beloit, 4,00, Janesville, 35,30; Liberty Prairie, 10,00; Madison, 28,90; Portage City, 15,00; Kenosha, 6,48, Footville, 4,50; Columbus, 11,98; Waupun, 11,00; Beaver Dam, 10,00, Mayville, 11,00; at five different School Houses, between Mayville and Fond du Lac, 15,00; Fond du Lac, 24,00; Oshkosh, 7,25, Neenah, 5,00; Rosendale, 13,00, Hartford, 13,70, total amount, $324,97. After taking my expenses out of this, such as Hall and Church rent, bill printing, and traveling expenses (which amounts to $158,33) there remains a balance for Mrs. Johnson of $166,64. Having sent Mr. King $150, leaves in my hands $16,64. The friends of humanity will see from Mr. King's statement the amount now wanted to accomplish the work; and I hope they will not only have their pocket-books open to give freely of the glittering ore, but their doors open to give me a crust of bread and a cup of cold water, that I may not have to trouble the hospitality of our Landlords who are so ready to wait on a man for his money.

I shall be in the field again next week and shall be happy to receive all the good people of the land, who are willing to give to aid the cause, and relieve a sister, whose anxiety for the safety of her child led her to the performance of an act repugnant to every freeman and lover of liberty. You will see connected with this letter in the Sentinel the amount necessary to accomplish the work, and I hope all will be ready and willing to give when they are called upon.

I now leave dollars and cents, and call your attention for a moment to the principle, upon which the immortal sires of 76, founded this glorious Republic and I appeal to the citizens of the State of Wisconsin to carry out the pure principles of democracy, laid down as the corner stone of this massive structure, which has been erected to stand, while other systems are tottering from their centres, and their high places fast wasting away. Why should not all men enjoy natural rights? Why, when that great compact formed by our Pilgrim Fathers, declares that all men are endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights? Why, I say, not let them enjoy those rights? Surely in my estimation they have been dearly purchased by every true hearted American born citizen. Yes! by the richest blood of our fore fathers, and shall we not enjoy the blessings they by their suffering and death won for us? I think we should, and I think every right-thinking American will support me in the remark.

Now then, I will ask the momentous question and then close. Will the people of the good State of Wisconsin look upon a man in the light of a man, or will they not? Will the State of Wisconsin suffer a portion of her citizens to be taxed without representation, or will they at once acknowledge our manhood and give the colored the same privileges other men now enjoy? Or have we still to perform some act to prove our fidelity to the government? Why are we thus looked upon and thus insulted? Is it because, when there was no eye to pity, and no arm to save, every colored man who was called upon by the government took up arms and went to the defence of his country, and sold his life as dearly as possible, that Liberty might be preserved and the glorious confederacy stand untrammelled and secure? Is it because three millions and a half have suffered a little over three hundred thousand and to do as they chose with them? Is it because we have suffered our wives and children to be placed upon the block and sold to the highest bidder, and the price of their souls taken to array others in purple and fine linen? Or is it because we have not set your laws at defiance, and done as the aborigines of this country have and are at present doing, levied war against you? Have we not yet done enough to prove our fidelity to the Government? Or is there still more suffering for us? If there is, God speed it, and let it be endured, that we may emerge the sooner from that slough of degradation in which we have so long been wallowing, and once more occupy the position enjoyed by all who are willing to swear allegiance to the powers that be in this, our glorious and prosperous God favored, but man cursed confederacy.

I will now leave this subject by again appealing to the people of Wisconsin to do away with every restriction placed upon a man, on account of his color and birth, and allow citizens of the State, individually and collectively enjoy all the rights and privileges of citizenship.

C. J. RUSSELL.

(We have received from Mr. Russell $150, collected by him for the "Hannah Johnson" Fund, which, with the amount previously acknowledged, and a "New Year's Gift" of $20 from Wm. E. Cramer, of the Wisconsin, makes about $225 now on hand. Hannah pledged herself for $500, or five years' services as a slave. We hope shortly to hear from St. Louis in regard to her, when we shall be able to tell our readers just how much more is needed.

GREAT STAMPEDE OF SLAVES.

Arrest of a Portion of the Fugitives.

DREADFUL TRAGEDY.

A Slave Child Killed by its Mother, and three Others Wounded—Conflict between the Fugitives and the Officers—A Deputy United States Marshal Shot—Coroner's Inquest.

About ten o'clock on Sunday, a party of eight slaves, two men, two women, and four children, belonging to Archibald K. Gaines and John Marshall of Richwood Station, Boone County, Kentucky, about sixteen miles from Covington, escaped from their owners. Three of the party are father, mother and son, whose names are Simon, Mary and Robert, the others are Margaret, wife of Robert, and her four children. The three first are the property of Marshall, and the others of Gaines.

They took a sleigh and two horses belonging to Marshall, and drove to the river bank, opposite the foot of Western Row, where they left them standing in the road, and crossed over to this city on the ice. They were missed a few hours after their flight, and Mr. Gaines, springing on a horse, followed in pursuit. On reaching the river shore, he learned that a resident had found the horses standing in the road as above stated, nearly dead from the hard drive that they had experienced and half frozen with the cold. He then crossed over to this city, and after a few hours diligent enquiry, he learned that his slaves were in a house about a quarter of a mile below the Mill Creek Bridge, on the River Road, occupied by a negro named Kite, a son of Joe Kite of infamous notoriety. He proceeded to the office of U. S. Commissioner John L. Pendery, and procured the necessary warrants, with U. S. Deputy Marshal Ellis, and a large body of assistants, and went at once to the place where his fugitives were concealed. It is well here to state that Kite had been formerly owned in the neighborhood of Richwood Station, and was purchased from bondage by his father. On reaching the house, Major Murphy, a neighbor of Gaines, and who was acquainted Kite, called on him to open the door and said resistance would be useless. This Kite agreed he would do, but delayed so long that the officers attempted to force it open, when a window was suddenly thrown up, and one of the negro men, Robert, presented a pistol and fired.

The ball wounded Mr. Patterson, a resident of the Fourth Ward, who had been deputized to assist in the arrest. He was standing in front of the window, and observing the intention of the negro, threw up his hand at the precise moment the pistol was fired. The bullet cut off one of his fingers, and then struck him in the mouth, inflicting a severe flesh wound. A second party of officers came up, and the doors were forced open, and after a short but desperate resistance, the slaves were secured, but not until Robert had fired three times without effect. After the conflict was over a bloody and melancholy spectacle presented itself. One of the slave children was discovered lying on the floor with its head nearly severed from its body, two others, boys, aged about four and five years, were bleeding from wounds in the neck and head, and an infant in the arms of Margaret had its head much swollen, and was bleeding quite freely at the nose. The officers state that Simon and Mary, the eldest of the party, made no resistence, but that Robert and Margaret fought with the ferocity of tigers, and that during the affray she struck her infant on the head with a fire-shovel, in the opinion of many with the intention of taking its life.

During a conversation with Margaret, she stated to us that she was eating breakfast in company with the other fugitives, when she heard some one cry out, "They are coming, they are coming." They sprang up in alarm, before they had time to fly their captors burst in upon them. She fought with all the strength with which she was capable, and cannot tell how her child was killed and the others wounded, but only knows that the death and wounding occurred during the affray. This is her story, but it is evident that the bloody tragedy was perpetrated while the officers were seeking admittance—and she is said to have acknowledged the fact of killing her child and wounding the others during the excitement incident to the arrest. The Coroner's inquest, which we give below, will throw some light on the subject.

The captives, as soon as arrested, were placed in baggage wagons, and driven rapidly to the office of the United States Marshal, on Fourth street, between Main and Walnut, followed by a large crowd of excited people. On reaching the Marshal's office, the wounds of the children were examined, when it was found that one of the children had received a flesh wound on the neck about three inches in length, but barely penetrating the skull—the other a scalp wound, about the same length. They are but little hurt, and [illegible] Marshal's office, apparently unconcerned. On questioning the little fellows, they said that some one in the house threw them down and tried to kill them, but they either did not know, or would not reveal who it was. The slaves, on reaching the Marshal's office, seated themselves around the stove with dejected countenances, and preserved a moody silence, answering all questions propounded to them in monosylables, or refusing to answer them at all. Simon is apparently about fifty. The son of Mr. Marshall, who is here in order, if possible, to recover the property of his father, says that they have always been faithful servants, and have frequently been on this side of the river. He relates that they never expressed any dissatisfaction in regard to their remaining in bondage.

Robert is a young man of about twenty-two years old, of a very lithe and active form, and rather a mild and pleasant countenance; he is also spoken of by his owner, as being an excellent servant. Margaret is a dark mulatto, apparently about the same age with her husband; her countenance is far from being vicious, and her senses yesterday; appeared partially stultified from the exciting trials she had endured. After remaining about two hours at the Marshal's office, Commissioner Pendery announced that the slaves would be removed to the custody of the United States Marshal until 9 o'clock this morning, when the case would come up for examination.

The slaves were then taken down stairs to the street door, when a wild and excited scene presented itself—the sidewalks and the middle of the street were thronged with people, and a couple of coaches were at the door in order to convey the captives to the Station house. The slaves guarded with a strong posse of officers, and as they made their appearance on the street, it was evident that there was a strong sympathy in favor. When they were taken to the carriage doors, there were loud cries of "drive on," "don't take them." The coachmen either from alarm or from a sympathetic feeling, put the whip to their horses and drove rapidly off, leaving the officers with their fugitives on the sidewalk. They started on foot with their charge, to the Hammond street Station-house, which they reached in safety, and secured their prisoners for the night, although followed by a very large crowd of whites and blacks.

The slaves claim that they have all been on this side of the river frequently by the consent of their masters.

About three o'clock application was made to Judge Burgoyne for a writ of habeas corpus, to bring the slaves before him. This was put in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Buckingham to serve, who, accompanied by several assistants, proceeded to Hammond street Station House, where the slaves were lodged. Some time was spent in waiting for the arrival of Mr. Bennett, Deputy U. S. Marshal. When he arrived he was unwilling to give them up, and a long time was spent parleying between the Marshal and the Sheriff's officers. The Sheriff being determined that the writ should be executed, Mr. Bennett went out to take counsel with his friends. Finally through the advice of Mayor Farran, Mr. Bennett agreed to lodge the slaves in jail, ready to be taken out at the order of Judge Burgoyne. Judge Burgoyne, having to be absent from the city to-day, will not hear the case until Wednesday morning.

At the Station-House, Lieut. Hazen showed his disposition to favor the slave-holder, by driving out of the room the gentleman who had sworn out the affidavit before Judge Burgoyne, and who had accompanied the Sheriff to point out the persons named in the writ, although he let Mr Gaines, the slave claimant, come in at pleasure. Mr. Gitchell, counsel for the slaves, remonstrated with him in regard to his course, and upon threats being made to report the case to Mayor Farran, he knocked under and allowed the gentleman to remain.

Several witnesses were examined before the Coroner. Their statements correspond mainly with the above details of the tragedy.

ANOTHER ESCAPE OF SLAVES.

Six slaves belonging to Mr. Levi Dougherty, who lives on Fourth street, between Madison Russell, Covington, Ky., together with two belonging to Mr. Gage, residing in the same neighborhood, made their escape from bondage on Sunday night. They crossed the river about 11 o'clock, and ere this are far on their way towards Canada. Their aggregate value to their owners was about $8,000.

Great K. N. Government Measure.—The Speaker, it will be recollected, gave to the K. N. majority of the Assembly the command of the Committee of Ways and Means. The body of which Mr. Odell is Chairman, is in full communion with the State officers. After deliberate consultation they have agreed to bring forward their party measure, in the following bill:

A BILL TO CARRY ON THE GOVERNMENT.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 1. Americans shall rule America.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.—Alb. Atlas.

We have received a copy of the Milwaukee Sentinel of the 1st inst. containing the President's Message. It was delivered to Congress before the customary organization of the House, and telegraphed immediately. The Sentinel reached us a week in advance of our other papers containing the message.—Prescott (Pierce Co.) Transcript.

Caution to Western Merchants.

Learning from some of the respectable merchants of Chicago, that my Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is extensively counterfeited by a number of Liquor mixers in New York, Philadelphia, and Boston, and finding that the pirates daringly advertise their pernicious deceptions under the name which belongs to my article, I think it necessary to caution the community against these vendors of poison in disguise.

I introduced the Schiedam Aromatic Schnaps for the purpose of supplying the medical faculty, and the whole community with a pure medicinal spirit, which might be prescribed with confidence, in all cases where stimulants were required, without producing the fearful consequences which invariably result from using adulterated liquor. In order to render assurance doubly sure, I had the article analyzed by physicians of world wide celebrity, and submitted for experimental test to thousands of distinguished medical practitioners. The responses from these sources were of the most unequivocal and satisfactory character. It is now before the public, surrounded with these guarantees, and bearing these unimpeachable endorsements, and call upon the community to protect themselves and me their own health and my reputation, by frowning down and repudiating the piratical speculators who are pedling their foul commodities under cover of my trade mark. No article had ever been imported from Holland into this market, under the name of Schnapps, previous to the appearance of Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps, in this city.

The first importation being made into this city in the year 1848, which can be seen by the Custom House Books, I deposited my label as a trade mark in the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York, in the year '851, and have the certificate in my possession of the state. The great demand which has thus been created for the genuine article, has set the whole hive of counterfeiters in motion, and the duty I owe to my customers and friends and the public, compels me to put them on their guard against imposition.

The genuine is put up in quart and pint bottles, with my name on bottle, cork and label, for sale by all the respectable druggists and grocers in the United States.

UDOLPHO WOLFE,
18, 20 and 22 Beaver street, New York.

Among the complaints for which the Schnapps has been declared a specific by the eminent physicians who have corresponded with the proprietor, are dropsy, dispepsia debility consequent upon long continued sickness and old age, epilepsy, asthma, gravel, colic, affections of the kidney and all chronic diseases of the genit-urinary apparatus.—For these and many other disorders, it is now prescribed with great success, by more than three thousand medical practitioners in various parts of the United States.

☞ For the benefit of the invalid portion of the community, we extract the following from the Almanac of Dr C. M. Jackson, proprietor of Hoofland's German Bitters hoping it may induce a trial of them:

Shefffield, Ill., March 19, 1855.

J. C. NILES says:

"I expect to sell great quantities of your bitters this year Many of my customers speak very highly of its good qualities, having proved itself most an excellent Fever and Ague preventative, a great purifier of the blood, and the very best thing on record to aid digestion and create a good natural appetite. In, short, I am sure it is one of the very best medicines known for family use, being safe and pleasant for any one to take."

C. L. D. CROCKWELL says.

Anamosa, Iowa, May 1, 1854.—"The Bitters give unbounded satisfaction to all that have used them, and I do and can always recommend them to all that are afflicted. They have cured many cases of Dyspepsia, some of them where hundreds of dollars have been spent for remedies which afforded no relief, and were considered incurable until they used the Bitters." Building Lots in Bradley & Metcalf's Addition.

WE ARE NOW offering for sale at the southern extremity of the city some of the most beautifully situated sites for residences to be obtained in Milwaukee. Extensive views of the bay, harbor and surrounding country may be had from many of the lots, and for health, purity of air and water, and general eligibility of location, are not equalled in the city. A portion of these lots are rendered still more desirable from the fact of there being on them a great variety of the choicest fruit trees many of which, having been planted by a former proprietor, have now attained their full size, and are annually bearing large crops of the most delicious fruit.

Strangers and others desiring a location for a dwelling possessing the advantage above named, may learn further particulars by applying to

Letter from Hon. John Minor Botts, of Virginia.

Richmond, July 9th, 1855

Messrs. Wm. S. Beers & Co.,

Gentlemen:—Considerations of duty to the afflicted alone prompt me to send you this voluntary testimonial to the great value of CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE, for that almost incurable disease, Scrofula.

Without being disposed, or deeming it necessary, to go into the particulars of the case, I can say that the astonishing results that have been produced by that medicine on a member of my own family, and under my own observation and superintendence, after the skill of the best physicians had been exhausted, and all the usual remedies had failed, fully justify me in recommending its use to all who may be suffering from that dreadful malady.

I do not mean to say that it is adapted to all constitutions, or that it will afford the same relief in all cases; for of course, I can know nothing about that—but from what I have seen of its effects, I would not hesitate to use it in any and every case of Scrofula, with persons for whom I felt an interest, or over whom I could exercise influence or control. Respectfully yours,

Police Court, February 2.

Woman Whipping Again.—A man named Patrick Regan was brought in from the lock up, and plead guilty to a charge of resisting Policemen Rice and Coughlin, while lawfully in the discharge of their duties as Policemen.—The circumstances of the case were these: On Friday night the defendant got drunk, and was beating his wife, and it was said by several that he put her ancle out of joint—broke down the door of his house, and was threatening to kill his wife, when Policemen Rice and Coughlin went in, having heard the cries of the woman, and attempted to arrest Regan. He resisted them—striking them, &c.—He was overpowered, and thrown on to a wagon, and one officer holding him, the other, with help, drew the woman whipper to the Watch House, where he stayed till the next morning. On his plea of guilty, he was fined $5,00 and costs, amounting to $12,14. His wife was unable to appear against him on the charge of assault and battery.

Another Woman Pounder.—A large and muscular man named Patrick Welch, showing the effects of intoxication, was brought round from the Watch House, where he had been taken the night previous, on a warrant issued the 2d of January, against him for threats made by him against the life of his wife. The officer, Ryan, had held the warrant over him until Friday night, when finding that he had beaten his wife and that her life was in danger, arrested the defendant and took him to the Watch House.

The Court read the complaint to the prisoner, stating that it charged threats on his part against his wife that he "would kill her."

Defendant.—"Well, she's not dead yet any way!"

The defendant's wife, a sickly, pale looking woman, stated that she had been married to him about twenty-three years, that she had four children; that defendant has been in the habit of drinking to excess for the past ten years, and when drunk abused her shamefully, and threatened to take her life; on New Year's day he broke up the trunks, tables, &c. She had never complained of him before, but he was getting worse each time he drank, and abused her more, and she was afraid he would put his threats into execution. On Friday night he came home drunk, kicked her, and again made threats, when she had him arrested.

The defendant was required to give bail in the sum of $250 to keep the peace for two months and pay the costs; in default he was taken to jail.

Stealing a Pocket Book and Fifty Dollars.—A man named Anthony Muller was brought in from the Watch House by Policeman Kessler, who had arrested him the night previous, for stealing a pocket book containing fifty dollars from Henry Malykern, in the dwelling house of Jacob Kear, the Wisconsin House, on East Water street, on the third of January. The defendant waived an examination, and in default of bail in the sum of $200 was remanded to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

John Staunton for being drunk was fined $1,00.

Masquerade Ball.—To-morrow evening at Young's Hall comes off the Annual Masquerade Ball, for the Benefit of the English and German Academy, under the auspices of the Milwaukee Ladies' Society. These entertainments have always been well managed and very numerously attended, and unusual pains have been taken to make the Ball to-morrow night attractive and amusing. A variety of capital masques may be expected and excellent order will be maintained throughout the evening.

Lake Shore Railroad.—The cars on this road were greatly impeded by snow drifts during the past week. On Saturday, a special train came up from the State Line, but none came through from Chicago. The passenger train was to leave Chicago at 9 A. M., yesterday, and attempt to come through.

Professor Felton's Lecture.—This Lecture, twice postponed in consequence of the detention of Professor Felton, is announced for this evening, and will be given, if the Professor is not again delayed by the obstructions on the Railroad track.

Vessel Sales.—The schooner E. Cramer has been sold to Chicago parties for $4,000, and the Juniata Patton for $4,500. Both schooners belonged to our Milwaukee fleet.

Horicon Railroad.—The travelling public will bear in mind that the cars on the Horicon Railroad commence their regular trips to-day. In another fortnight, they will run to Waupun.

New Hotel.—The large Brick Hotel in the Third Ward, near the Warehouses, erected some time since by D. B. Hibbard, is to be finished off, furnished and opened for business in the spring.

Stinging Cold Again.—The weather took a cold turn, again, Friday and Saturday mornings, the Mercury, in various exposures about our city, marked from 14 to 16 degrees below zero.

Real Estate Sales.—Mr. Wall invites attention to his advertisement of property sold last week and of property which he offers for sale this week.

Christadoro's Hair Dye still Triumphant!

CONTRAST the tints brought out in the hair by Christadoro's matchless revitalizing Hair Dye, and those produced by application of the burning fluids ordinarily sold as Hair Dyes, you see at once that the color is natural in one case, unnatural in the other, and the simple reason is that Christadoro's is the ONLY preparation which by its exact chemical combination operates on natural and immutable principles. Made, sold and applied (in 10 private rooms) at Christadoro's, 6 Astor House, Broadway, N. Y. Also for sale by the principal Druggists and Perfumers throughout the country.

RACINE & MISSISSIPPI R. R.

OPEN TO DELAVAN!

WINTER ARRANGEMENT.

ON and after Monday, February 4th, regular Trains will run between Racine and Delavan, stopping at East Mt. Pleasant, Windsor, Union Grove, Dover, Burlington, Lyons, Springfield, Geneva and Elkhorn Stations, as follows:

GOING WEST.

Leave Racine 8 A. M.; arrive at Delavan 10,45 A. M.
Leave Racine 2 P. M.; arrive at Delavan 4,15 P. M.

GOING EAST.

Leave Delavan 6,30 A. M.; arrive at Racine 9,15 A. M.
Leave Delavan 1 P. M.; arrive at Racine 3,45 P. M.

The 6.30 A. M. train from Delavan connects at Racine with the A. M. trains of the Milwaukee and Chicago Railroad North and South, and the 1 o'clock P. M. train from Delavan connects with the P. M. trains of the Milwaukee and Chicago Railroad North and South.

Stages connect with the 8 o'clock A. M. train from Racine, at Springfield, for Geneva.

Also, at Delavan, for Darien, Allen's Grove, Summerville, Clinton and Beloit, daily, and for Maxon's Mills, Emerald Grove, and Janesville.

This road is well equipped and furnished with every facility for doing a heavy with despatch and regularity. The line penetrates the most populous and productive portion of Wisconsin; capacious Grain Warehouses are already erected at the principal Stations by private individuals, affording every convenience for the purchase and shipment of all kinds of Produce and Provisions, which, together with the eligible Depots of the Company on the line, and superior storage and shipping facilities at the Lake, renders this a desirable line of country for Produce and Lumber operations.

FREIGHTING BUSINESS

STATE OF WISCONSIN, }
Secretary's Office, } ss.

Satisfactory evidence having been furnished to me that the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, being an Insurance Company, incorporated by the State of Massachusetts, is possessed of the Actual Capital required by the seventh section of an act, entitled "an Act to provide for the incorporation of Insurance Companies," approved February 9th, 1850.

Now, Therefore, in pursuance of the Act aforesaid, I John W. Hunt, Assistant Secretary of State, of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby certify that Lucius Cummings, if he be duly authorized by said Company, may take Risks, Receive Premiums, and transact the business of an Insurance Agent for said Company in this State, from this date until the thirty-first day of January next.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed the Great Seal of the State, at the Capitol in Madison, this 16th day of August, 1855.
JOHN W. HUNT, Ass't Sec'y of State.

Capital and accumulations of the above named Insurance Company, $200,000, all paid, and invested according to the Laws of Wisconsin, (as the above certificate shows.) The accumulations are to be divided every five years, as provided in the charter of the Company, which is perpetual!

The Company having complied with the Law of Wisconsin, and established a Branch Office at Chicago, Ill., (it being practically a Home Office of the West) where they write Policies, Pay Losses, and transact any business pertaining to the Home Office.

LIABILITIES.

Unsettled claims for Losses and not due $176,632 47

The Ætna Insurance Company presents its patrons the very satisfactory condition, of a large increase in Cash Assets, for the further security of their policies—all our investments being placed at the minimum market value, at the present time of some depression in the standard of same. They are either prime dividend paying stocks, or good, valuable and clean investments, yielding moderate interest and income. The standard basis on which the Assets have been valued, being Gold at Interest. Besides this solidity, the Company calls attention to the strength and security it derives from its combined system of Agencies, through its agents having the means of presenting a united phalanx of experienced Underwriters, which has worked, for thirty-seven years, the happiest results to stockholders, and claimants for losses—and enables it to enter the year 1856, with greater prestige for future usefulness, than has yet been reached by a really National Insurance Corporation.

All business attended to with despatch and fidelity.

SIX O'CLOCK REPORT.

FROM WASHINGTON.

BANKS ELECTED SPEAKER!

The Plurality Rule Adopted!

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.

Mr. Smith of Tennessee said he had heretofore voted against the Plurality rule, but as yesterday's vote indicated some chance of electing as speaker a man of sound national views he now offered a resolution for the adoption of that rule.

The House, by 10 majority refused to lay the resolution on the table. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 113 against 104. Mr. Orr then unconditionally withdrew his name as the Democratic Caucus Candidate, and there being now a probability that greater strength can be concentrated upon his colleague Mr. Aiken, Mr. Boyce moved to rescind the resolution.

Mr. Boyce's motion to rescind the plurality resolution was tabled, 117 against 101. [Applause.]

Jones, of Tenn., referring to the terms of the resolution, that if there is no election by a majority in the next three trials, on the candidate receiving the highest vote on the fourth ballot be declared by the House Speaker,—remarked that the Republicans were prepared for the contest and moved an adjournment till Monday to give the other parties an opportunity to arrange their plans, disagreed to, 84 against 103; impatient cries of call the roll. Walker moved to rescind the plurality resolution, decided out of order by 45 maj. Paine moved an adjournment; refused, he then made an ineffectual motion to rescind the plurality rule; the House proceeded to vote, Banks 102; Aiken 93; Fuller 14; Barclay and Hinkman Democrats voted for Wells, and Dunn and Harrison, Moore and Scott for Campbell of Ohio, necessary to a choice 108. The second vote excepting Fuller lost one, was the same as the first, the third was the same as the second, except Aiken lost one.

Mr. Fuller of Penn. repeated what he had said through former occasions namely that he was not and did not desire to be a candidate, 130 votes had satisfied him, he was not choice of majority of House, and on no other terms would he accept that position. Mr. Barclay remarked that he had been adverse to anything like a coalition with K. N's, whether it came from the North or South, he asked Mr. Aiken whether the latter stood on the Democratic Caucus platform, and whether he had not written a letter to Humphrey Marshall making pledges to Southern wing of the K. N's. Mr. Aiken: I am not a candidate, I will serve them to the best of my ability. H. Marshall: I have only to say that Mr. Aiken has addressed me no letter whatever. Applause and cries of call the roll, &c.

The excitement was intense during the final ballot which resulted as follows. Mr. A. K. Marshall, during the call of the roll congratulated his American friends, saying they had fought good and conquered. There was now no Democratic candidate in the field with an offensive caucus platform; performing his duty as a patriot and not as a partizan, he voted for Mr. Aiken.

Mr. Walker voted the same way and esteeming Mr. Aiken a man with no stain of partizanism on his skirts, sought not office, but to whom offices is tendered, and is true to the Constitution.

Messrs. Paine and Lindley voted for Mr. Aiken, knowing him to be a national man. Mr. Smith, of Alabama, voted for Mr. Aiken, under protest. Other gentlemen sought to make explanations, the greatest confusion existing. Several members now changed their votes and were greeted with applause for so doing. Impatient cries of announce the vote; the lobbies were crowded to suffocation, and the excitement was increased by the startling cry that a boy was being crushed to death by the persons in the gallery. Some of the members shouted out "Fall back," and others shouted, "Hand him over the Rail." The boy was at length released from his imminent danger.

Announced the vote was now read, the vote as follows; Banks 103; Aiken 100; Fuller 6; Campbell of Ohio 4; Wells 1; Mr. Benson, one of the tellers, then declared that Mr. Banks was elected Speaker, applause, deafening shouts of applause followed from the Republican side and other quarters of the House. The Ladies waved their handkerchiefs in the galleries for several minutes. The disorder was beyond description. Mr. A. K. Marshall raised the question that Mr. Banks was not elected, saying the Clerk had no power to authorize such a result to be announced, it must be so declared by the vote of the House, and the Clerk explained giving reasons which appeared to be satisfactory for his conduct.

Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, appealed to the Honor of Gentlemen to carry the plurality resolution into effect and end this disgraceful scene. Mr. Cobb, of Ga., regarded Mr. Banks as virtually elected by a majority of the House under the plurality rule. Mr. Aiken asked to be allowed to conduct Mr. Banks as Speaker, to the chair.—(Applause.) Mr Smith, of Ala, highly appreciated Mr. Aiken's request; if granted, he thought it would heal division and pour oil on the troubled waters. When grown up men make a child's bargain, they ought to stick to it. (Laughter).

After further debate, Mr. Clingman offered a resolution declaring that, by reason of the adoption of the plurality rule and the votes taken under it, Mr. Banks had been duly chosen Speaker, and it is hereby so declared, passed by ayes 156, nays 84.

Several gentlemen explained that, although they had constantly voted against Mr. Banks, they had voted as Judges, not as electors, to carry out the orders of the House by voting for the above resolution.

Mr. Banks was, by request of the Clerk, conducted to the chair by Messrs. Aiken, Fuller, of Pa., and Campbell, of Ohio. He was greeted with loud and enthusiastic cheers, and amidst the profound silence which followed, said

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives:

I have no personal objects to accomplish. I am animated by a single desire of contributing in some little degree to the maintenance of the well established principles of our government in their original American signification in developing that portion of the continent we occupy so far as we may within the power conferred on us, enlarging and swelling its capacity for beneficent influence at home and abroad, and maintain intact its estimable privileges transmitted to us, I am aware neither myself nor no other equal to the perfect accomplishment of duties, therefore as a man must be a suppliant for your indulgence and support. I again return to you my thanks for the honor you have conferred upon me. Applause, deafening and long continued.

Before I proceed to complete the acceptance of the office you have conferred upon myself, I must ask your indulgence and express my obligations for the honor conferred upon me. It would afford you greater pleasure were it accompanied even by the self assurance that I would bring to the discharge of arduous and delicate duties, always difficult, but now surrounded with unusual difficulties. Any capacity commensurate with their responsibility and dignity. I can only say I shall bear myself so far as possible with fidelity to the interests of the country and Government and with impartiality so far as regards the rights of the members of the House.

Mr. Giddings being the oldest member of the House, administered the oath to Mr. Banks, by request of the Clerk.

Mr. Stanton then offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the thanks of this House are eminently due, and are hereby tendered to Jno. W. Forney, for the distinguished ability, fidelity and impartiality with which he has presided over the deliberations of the House during the arduous and protracted contest for Speaker.—Adopted unanimously.

The Republicans were wild with exultation, and lustily cheered Mr. Banks and congratulated him on his success.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.

The Secretary of Navy, yesterday, sent the steamer Fulton, in search of the missing Barque Amelia, which was siezed at Port au Prince by the American Consul on suspicion of being engaged in a fillibustering expedition, and ordered to this port, under command of Lieuts. Worden, Maxwell and Eaben, of the Saratoga, Sloop of War.

It is now about 3 months since the Amelia sailed from Port au Prince, and it is feared that she was lost in the terrific gale of January. Col. P. H. French, Minister from Nicaragua, left for Washington. He intends to present his credentials to the State Departments in form.

The Republican head quarters are illuminated in honor of the election of Banks. Great enthusiasm prevails among the Republicans and the intelligence seems to give general satisfaction.—A salute will be fired on Monday.

The Rumors of Peace.

BOSTON, Feb. 1st

The London Times points out to Russia and other powers the folly of supposing that the readiness of the English nation to make peace, is at all proportioned to its unwillingness to make war. We have, it says, got over the first shock, and are beginning to make common of that which a little while ago we regarded with the most genuine horror and aversion. There is a strong sentiment which repines at the termination of hostilities before we have had the opportunity of putting forward our whole strength, and vindicating in a new field, and against a new enemy, our ancient renown. We mention these things for the very sake of the peace, the preliminaries of which we have, as it appears to have been signed between Count Valentine Esterhazy and Count Nesselrode, for in the present tenor of public mind in England, any attempt, however slight, to renew the diplomatic manœuvers of last April would result in an immediate explosion of popular feeling, which might render it impossible to proceed further in a pacific decision.

Times city article, Friday evening—The operations in the English funds to-day have been comparatively of a steady character, and they seem for the present to have settled at the improvement of yesterday. On the stock and exchange there was full employment for many, and short loans and government securities were in request at full 5 per cent. No fresh news transpired to influence the course of business, but an impression that the Government, while they are resolved not to relax their preparations, are disposed to believe that the negotiations commenced will go on to a rapid and satisfactory conclusion, tended to give general stability to the appearance of the market.

(Branch of Bacon's Mercantile College Cincinnati, O
No. 13, Bruen's Block, Madison, Wisconsin.

THE undersigned respectfully announces that he has taken a Room in the above named block, (until his new College Edifice, which is in course of erection, corner of Mifflin and Pinckney streets, is ready for occupancy) and will open his Mercantile College on Monday, January 14, 1856.

The plan adopted in teaching, combines practice with theory; instead of using Text Books the pupils are exercised in making original entries of every day business transactions—Journalizing, Posting, Balancing Accounts, Opening and Closing a great variety of different Setts of Books, both for Partnership and Individual Business, where the business has been prosperous and adverse—and thus qualifying the student for entering into the practical duties of the Accountant, in any kind of business.

THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION will consist of Double Entry Book-Keeping, embracing every department of Trade and Mercantile Accountantship. Wholesale and Retail, Commission, Exchange, Banking, Manufacturing, Shipping, Individual, Partnership, Joint Stock and Compound Company Business. Also Commercial Calculations, Penmanship, Lectures on the Science of Accounts, &c.

Pupils are instructed individually, and not in classes, so that Students may enter at any time and proceed in the ratio of their capacity and industry.

HOURS OF INSTRUCTION, viz. From 9 to 12 M., from 2 to 4 and from 7 to 9 o'clock, P. M.

TERMS:

For one Scholarship, which entitles the holder of it to a full course of Instruction $4[illegible]

N. B. Until the completion of my new College Building, I will offer the following inducements, viz: Any one person subscribing One Hundred Dollars, will be entitled to four Scholarships at $ [illegible]

Any one person subscribing Five Hundred Dollars, will be entitled to twenty-five Scholarships at $20 [illegible]

☞ The Scholarships will be transferable, and each entitles the holder to a full course of Instruction.

Each subscriber will be secured for amount of subscription by Mortgage on Real Estate.

Hours of Instruction, from 9 to 12 M., and from 2 to [illegible] and from 7 to 9 P. M.

☞ The opinion of a Lady who knows Frank M. Wever and has bought goods at

WEVER'S
DRY GOOD PALACE
AND CARPET ROOMS!

Come to the Palace, oh come there with me,
Where Fashion, 'mid splendor, still holds her levee
And smilingly tells you that Beauty is sold,
To youth, or to age, in exchange for their gold;
And their Lady-like charms through life may prolong,
In robes like a Queen's, which sell for a song.
They've shawls for the taste, and shawls for the storm,
They've cloaks which fall softly, so rich, and so warm,
They've carpets of Wilton, of Velvet, and Brussels
They've laces, and 'broderies, ribbons, and tassels,
They've sombre hued goods, for the weeping, and sad,
They've suits like the sunshine, for merry and glad,
They've fabrics for millions, and hold their levee,
For those who pay tribute, or come but to see.
If Palace of Dry Goods, so wonderous grand,
Can be aught but a fable, of old Fairyland;
But those who know WEVER, can't doubt for a minute
This glorious Palace, and all that is in it. O. H. G.

Now I blush, indeed I do, what modest married man would not? Yet I console myself with the idea that beauty always pays tribute to worth and merit. Thanking sincerely yet humbly my fair contributor, I trust that by honesty, uprightness and my gentlemanly bearing, I may ever command her respect. F. M. WEVER,

HOW TO RAISE MELONS,

And how to Preserve the Plants when young, from Bugs and Worms.

To FARMERS.

I WOULD call your attention to a subject which may interest many of you, and is of considerable importance to yourself, which is, the culture of the Water Melon. I have made this my sole business for several years—believing that if I succeeded in growing this desirable and delicious fruit, and making it, by culture and choice of soils best adapted to its growth, as sure as that of other crops, and also to secure it against its enemies—the little yellow and striped bug, and the corn or cut worm, I should accomplish a much-to-be-wished-for task.

I am now gratified to be able to announce to you my

COMPLETE SUCCESS.

One of the causes of the failure of the Melon crop, is on account of the bugs and worms, (of which, probably, you have all had sad experience.) I have succeeded in securing the plants against these pests, as safely as though they were not in existence, and in a manner, too, perfectly in accordance with nature. I have experimented rather largely on the old system of preventing the bugs from destroying the plants; but discovered that the plans adopted, if anything near efficient, would injure the plant, or was too expensive. I adopted an entirely new method, which is this: I watched the habits of the bugs, in order to discover what food they preferred. When I discovered this, I gathered the seeds of this plant and planted them between every second or third row of melons. The bugs abandoned the melons for this plant, and they were left to grow as safely as though the bugs were not in existence. The expense is but trifling—being about two hours' work on an acre. The method of securing the plant against the corn worm is quite as simple.

It is not necessary to say more on this subject; but I now offer you the direction for the highest culture of the Water and Musk Melon, and the secret of protecting them from their enemies; and also a sample of FIVE VARIETIES OF THE WATER AND MUSK MELON SEEDS, which are, I believe, (viewing them in all their qualities,) the best grown in the United States. Three of the Water and two of the Musk Melons; one of the latter being a nutmeg or cantelope variety. The Water Melons are so selected that they succeed each other in ripening about two weeks; one of them ripens about two weeks earlier than any that I have ever seen. This early melon can be grown as far north as any corn can be grown, for it is a rapid grower and a profuse bearer, and the best melon I ever saw or enjoyed the pleasure of eating. I have been to considerable expense in experimenting, and in the selection of the choicest varieties of seed, and also the expense of advertising to acquaint you with these facts, and I cannot do it without a price.

Farmers, I know this is valuable, and I believe that you want it; and I cannot charge you less than a dollar. Gentlemen, you that wish it, send along your orders—enclose a dollar, and you will receive in return, the secret for protecting the plant from its enemies—the seed, and the directions for their highest cultivation.

If I do not receive a sufficient number of orders to reward me handsomely, I will reserve the right to return every man his dollar instead of the directions. I would say to those persons who have forwarded their orders, that they will receive the directions in good time for planting, or receive back their money. Address

In regard to the character of the work got up by this

The Oldest Establishment in the State,

the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation through the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the next man.

They continue to manufacture FLOUR and SAW MILL GEARING, and STEAM ENGINES, on the most approved principle.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORKS, such as GUAGE AND CYLINDER COCKS, OIL CUPS AND COCKS, and STEAM WHISTLES. Also TURTON'S FILES, which they will sell at the lowest cash price.

☞ They are also Agents for EASTMAN'S PATENT STEAM GUAGES, which are well worth the attention of all those who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

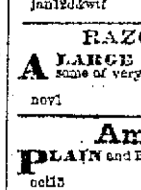
ANOTHER TRIUMPH OF HERRING'S SAFES.



MR. SILAS C. HERRING—

Dear Sir:—The safe I bought of you, nearly two years since, has "turned up" all right. We dug it from the ruins in the cellar yesterday. The safe was in the back part of the fourth story of "Totteral's Building," corner of Fifth and Chestnut streets, in the height of the fire of the 15th inst., and fell with the burning timbers a distance of 40 feet. It contained all my books and papers. Not a thing was saved on my premises except the contents of your safe, which effectually resisted all the "the fury of the flames." I am now using the same books and papers.

Yours, truly,

THOMAS W. PRICE.

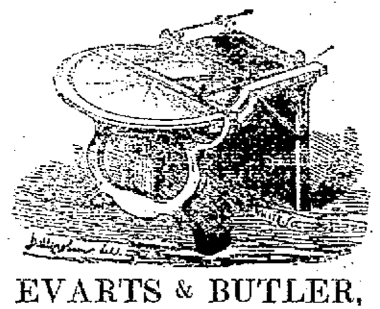
EVARTS'
PATENT SHINGLE MILL



EVARTS & BUTLER,

PROPRIETORS & MANUFACTURERS,

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

THE SMOOTHNESS OF THE WORK WHICH GIVES this Mill its superiority, is produced by making the cut in the direction of the fibre of the wood.

The case with which wood is worked in that direction gives it speed of execution; and the flexibility of the shingle width-wise relieves the saw, so that it may be ground thin on its edge, so as to cut away but little of the wood.

The shingles now made with this mill sell in this market seventy-five cents per thousand higher than any other sawed shingles.

This mill is made entirely of iron—strong, simple and of the best workmanship, easily worked, and not liable to get out of order.

PIANO FORTE TUNING AND REGULATING.

THE SUBSCRIBER, having engaged the services of Mr. E. T. HURLBUT, a competent and experienced tuner, is now prepared to attend to all orders with which he may be favored. The following testimonial to Mr. Hurlbut's capability is from the director of the celebrated Germania Musical Society.

Ago, March 27, 1855.

It is with much pleasure that I commend Mr. E. T. Hurlbut as a Piano Forte Tuner and regulator. To say that he is an excellent tuner, would not be doing him justice, for I can without hesitation say that he is capable of tuning a Piano as near to perfection as it is possible for a Piano to be tuned; but the greatest recommendation for him is the unusual length of time which his Pianos remain in tune. I have never, either in Europe or America, seen a man whom I would so cheerfully and with so much confidence employ to tune or regulate a Piano Forte as Mr. Hurlbut, and as cheerfully recommend him to all who want Pianos tuned.

Helmbold's Genuine Preparations.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

FOR DISEASES OF THE BLADDER and Kidneys, Secret Diseases, Strictures, Weakness, and all diseases of the sexual organs, whether in male or female, from whatever cause they may have originated, and no matter of how long standing.

If you have contracted the terrible disease which, when once seated in the system, will surely go down from one generation to another, undermining the constitution and sapping the very vital fluids of life, do not trust yourself in the hands of quacks, who start up every day in a city like this, and fill the papers with their glaring falsehoods, too well calculated to deceive the young, and those not acquainted with their tricks. You cannot be too careful in the selection of a remedy in these cases.

The Fluid Extract Buchu has been pronounced by eminent physicians the greatest remedy ever known. It is a medicine perfectly pleasant in its taste, and very innocent in its action, and yet so thorough that it annihilates every particle of the rank and poisonous virus of this dreadful disease; and unlike other remedies, does not dry up the disease in the blood.

Constitutional debility brought on by self abuse, a most terrible disease, which has brought thousands of the human race to untimely graves, thus blasting the brilliant hopes of parents, and blighting in the bud the glorious ambition of many a noble youth, can be cured by this infallible remedy. And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simply delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found acting both as a cure and preventative.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

Compound Fluid Extr. Sarsaparilla

For purifying the blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of scrofula, salt rheum, scald head, ulcerations of the throat and legs, pains and swellings of the bones, tetter, pimples on the face, and all scaly eruptions of the skin.

This article is now prescribed by some of the most distinguished physicians in the country, and has proved more efficient in practice than any preparation of Sarsaparilla yet offered to the public. Several cases of secondary syphilis, mercurial and scrofulous diseases, have entirely recovered in the incurable wards of our public institutions, which had for many years resisted every mode of treatment that could be devised. The cases furnish striking examples of the salutary effects of this medicine in arresting some of the most inveterate diseases after the glands were destroyed and the bones already affected.

NOTICE.—Letters from responsible physicians and professors of several medical colleges, and certificates of cures by patients, will be found accompanying both preparations.

PRICES.—Fluid Extract of Buchu, $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. Fluid extract of Sarsaparilla, $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5—equal in strength to one gallon of syrup of sarsaparilla.

Prepared and sold by H. T. HELMBOLD, Chemist, 263 Chestnut-st., near the Girard House, Philadelphia.

To be had of

And of druggists and dealers everywhere.

All letters directed to Proprietor or Agent receive immediate attention. je29-1yd&w

MEDICAL.

R. R. R.
LIFE AND DEATH.
THE
Mysteries of Disease Laid Open to the People.

Health is the Principle of Life—Disease is the Principle of Death.

The R. R. R. Remedies possess the great power to secure to the human system health and long life, and free the human family from pains, aches, and all bodily infirmities.

THE ART OF PRESERVING HEALTH AND THE METHOD OF CURING DISEASE

BY THE R. R. R.'S.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

IS TO BE USED in all cases where there is pain. The moment it is applied externally, or taken internally, it will allay the most torturing aches, pains, cramps, spasms, burns, scalds, &c., quicker than Morphine, Chloroform, Veratrine, or any other anodyne or remedy that has ever been used by medical men.

It is safer than these dangerous remedies. The public will bear in mind that Chloroform, Morphine, Opium, &c., only stifle the pain by stupifying the senses; so that the perceptive faculties lose the power of feeling, and that after the system—the influence of these narcotics have passed from the system—the pain again breaks forth with its terrible pangs, with renewed violence.

Radway's Ready Relief stops the pain and removes the cause of the disease that occasions it; it infuses new life into the weak and diseased parts. It braces the nerves, and establishes in the system a reaction of health and strength, in the place of pain, weakness and disease.

As a counter irritant, Radway's Ready Relief applied to the surface of the body, where there is any inflammation or congestion, it will instantly scatter the congested blood, equalizes the circulation, and in a few minutes the most excruciating pains are removed. This may be seen in cases of Lumbago, Gout, and Rheumatism in their most terrible forms, where an application of Radways Ready Relief will restore the patient ease and comfort.

Crippled with Rheumatism, Arm and Leg perished—No hopes of his recovery—Timely use of R. R. R.—A wonderful cure.

LETTER FROM ISAAC HUDDLESTONE.

Rapids Parish, La., June 10th, 1855.

Messrs. Radway & Co.—Radway's Ready Relief has cured Peter May of Rheumatism, when there was no hope of his ever recovering. I heard of his situation and I sent for him. His right arm and leg was all perished. He had no use of them at all; but by the use of your medicine, in two months he was carrying the mail from Cherryville to Burr's Ferry. I objected. He said he must do something for a living. It has been fourteen months since he was cured. He is now well and working on his farm; and the whole cost of your medicine was five dollars.

CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE

THE GREAT PURIFIER OF THE BLOOD!

THE BEST ALTERATIVE KNOWN!!

NOT A PARTICLE OF MERCURY IN IT!

An infallible remedy for Scrofula, King's Evil, Rheumatism, Obstinate Cutaneous Eruptions, Pimples or Pustules on the Face, Blotches, Boils, Ague and Fever, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ringworm or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement and pain of the Bones and Joints, Salt Rheum, Stubborn Ulcers, Syphilitic Disorders, and all diseases arising from an injudicious use of Mercury, Imprudence in Life, or Impurity of the Blood.

This great alterative Medicine and Purifier of the Blood is now used by thousands of grateful patients from all parts of the United States, who testify daily to the remarkable cures performed by the greatest of all medicines, "CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE." Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Scrofula, Eruptions on the Skin, Liver Disease, Fevers, Ulcers, Old Sores, Affection of the Kidneys, Diseases of the Throat, Female Complaints, Pains and Aching of the Bones and Joints, are speedily put to flight by using this inestimable remedy.

For all diseases of the Blood, nothing has yet been found to compare with it. It cleanses the system of all impurities, acts gently and efficiently on the Liver and Kidneys, strengthens the Digestion, gives tone to the stomach, makes the Skin clear and healthy, and restores the Constitution, enfeebled by disease or broken down by the excesses of youth, to its pristine vigor and strength.

For the DISEASES OF FEMALES it is peculiarly applicable, and wherever it has become known is regularly prescribed with the happiest effects. It invigorates the weak and debilitated, and imparts elasticity to the worn-out frame, clears the skin, and leaves the patient fresh and healthy; a single bottle of this inestimable remedy is worth all the so-called Sarsaparillas in existence.

The large number of certificates which we have received from persons from all parts of the United States, is the best evidence that there is no humbug about it. The Press, hotel keepers, magistrates, physicians, and public men, well known to the community, all add their testimony to the wonderful effects of this GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Call on the Agent and get an Almanac, and read the details of astonishing cures performed by CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE, (IN MOST CASES WHERE EVERY THING ELSE HAD SIGNALLY FAILED.) The limits of an advertisement will not admit their full insertion.

AYER'S PILLS.

"Wisdom shall bow down to it, and the great of the earth shall kneel before it."

Never could this be said with more truth, than it now applies to this remedy for affections of the Throat and Lungs. The exalted in learning and power acknowledge its supremacy, while both the little and the great can feel its benefits. The liberal-minded among those skilled to cure are free to own its mastery over distempers which have baffled their art. Those of exalted stations are not ashamed to testify to its virtues, but deem it a duty and a pleasure to thus hold out the lamp of their experience to their suffering fellow men.

Witness the following:

(Translation.)

Vermillionville, La., April 1853.

MONS. le DR. J. C. AYER:—I have of late made frequent use of your CHERRY PECTORAL in my practice, and am happy to inform you that in no case yet has it failed me. I have made some signal cures of Laryngitis and Bronchitis with it, and have completely cured one case of Asthma, which has withstood every other medicine I could employ. Accept, sir, the assurances of my distinguished consideration, JULES CLAUD GOUGUET, M. D.,

Late Surgeon of the Royal Marine, France.

Extract from a letter of our Minister at the Court of the Sublime Porte.

Legation of the U. S. A., Constantinople, Turkey.

DR. J. C. AYER, DEAR SIR:—The CHERRY PECTORAL received from you for the Sultan has been delivered to his private Secretary at the palace, and you will, doubtless, hear from it in due season. That that you were so kind as to send me has been given to friends, who have in many cases, found it exceedingly useful.

Yours Respectfully, GEO. P. MARSH,

Minister Plenipotentiary of the U. S. A. to Turkey.

Curacoa, March 5, 1853.

DR. J. C. AYER:—I use your CHERRY PECTORAL daily in my practice, and am satisfied it is a remedy which must meet in every country the highest approbation.

CATHOLIC
BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES!

THIS INSTITUTION is on Nemahbin Lake in Wisconsin, thirty miles west of the City of Milwaukee, and about two miles from Pine Lake Station on the Milwaukee and Watertown Railroad.

To many of the inhabitants of Milwaukee, the remarkable beauty and healthiness of the situation is already known. The house stands on a high point of land between the Nemahbin and Lower Nashotah Lakes, commanding a full view of both. The building is of stone, in English Cottage style, having a Southern exposure upon Lake Nemahbin, with full length piazzas on the front and two sides. It contains eleven chambers, a parlor, dining room, study, kitchen, washroom and bathroom.

Pupils of all denominations received.

MEDICAL.

DR. WEAVER'S

CANKER & SALT RHEUM SYRUP & CERATE.

IT IS AN UNDISPUTABLE FACT THAT the above medicines are the only infallible remedies now before the public for cutaneous Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Sore Legs, Ulcers, Old Fever Sores, Scald Head, Scorbutic Eruptions, &c., &c.

Cases that the most eminent Physicians have despaired of relieving, immediately yielded to their curative powers, and when used in accordance with the printed directions, which accompany each bottle, the Syrup and Cerate combined eradicate any of the above named diseases, and leaves the sufferer without a blemish. These medicines are too well known to require anything more than a plain statement of facts. The joyful intelligence is reaching us daily from East, West, North and South, of the wonderful cures they are performing.

See what is said by those who have used these medicines:

The Rev. Samuel Henry, of Palmer, Mass., says, "they have done me more good than all the other medicines I have used for Erysipelas."

Capt. William Vail, of the steamer Granite State, says: "they have cured my daughter of Salt Rheum and Scald Head of six years' standing. She was literally covered with sores; is now perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup and Cerate."

Dr. A. J. Johnson, of North Wardsboro, Vt., says, "a Scrofulous disease of the hip joint, and Scald Head in the same child, have been cured by the Syrup and Cerate."

Rev. August Bolles says "it has cured the Salt Rheum in my leg."

J. Hatfield Frazer, Esq., editor of the Somerset Whig, Somerville, N. J., says "my mother has been completely cured of a severe case of Tetter of long standing, that had defied the skill of the best Physicians."

Hon. Joel Loomis, of East Lyme, Conn., says, "I was completely cured of Erysipelas in my legs, after a council of the best Physicians in the County had pronounced the disease incurable, (at my age which was seventy-eight years, but Weaver's Syrup and Cerate did the work at once."

Elias Latham, Esq., of Orient, Long Island, N. Y., says, "I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you and your medicines. I have been afflicted for more than thirty years with Salt Rheum in its worst form. I tried several Physicians in New York, Brooklyn and Greenport. I have dieted and taken medicines enough to float a pretty large boat, but they did me no good. I have taken your medicines one year, and am now able to work and sleep without an ache or a pain, and my neighbors say I am the sprightliest man on the Island."

The Rev. J. S. Swan, of New London says, I have used he Syrup and Cerate in my family for more than a year and I consider it completely adapted to sustain the high reputation that is claimed for it. I have seen it used in number of cases for Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, with entire success.

Ask Seth Frisbery, of Taunton, Mass., what the medicines will do; ask William Barber, of Three Mile Bay, Jeff Co., N. Y., what the syrup has done for him; ask G. F. & W. H. Boynton, of Perkinsville, Vt.; ask F. L. Kent, of Chicago, Ill; ask Martha Cottle, of Martha's Vineyard, Mass; ask Wm F. Keables, or Wm P. Benjamin, Esq., of New London; ask Dr. H. M. Murdock, of Pulaski, N. Y; ask J. C Smith, of Brooklyn N. Y., who was cured of Scrofula, after losing his leg by the disease, and suffering for years, has been perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup & Cerate; ask Curtis Borrough, of Shelby, N. Y., who has been cured of a severe case of Salt Rheum; ask Chas. Akin of Hume, N. Y., what the Syrup and Cerate will do for sore legs; ask Winslow and Slafter, Merchants, Virgil, N. Y. what it will do for Fever Sores. In a word, ask every body who has ever tried these wonderful medicines, and the answer will be the same—THEY CURE.

"EUREKA."

THE CHOLERA SPECIFIC.

THE Proprietor has chosen the above as an appropriate cognomen for his new discovery, and thousands have already added their testimony to the wonderful effects of this great Remedy, certifying it as the greatest and most important achievement of the age. This great desideratum has long been sought by men of science, experience and skill. The indefatigable energies of the proprietor has at last crowned with success, and he fearlessly exclaims to all the world, "EUREKA!"—"I HAVE FOUND IT."

☞ He has used it for five years in his private practice in New York, on the Isthmus and in California, and in no case has it failed in Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Diarrhoea and Dysentery.

☞ It is a sovereign Specific—instantly relieving pain in the stomach or bowels, cramps, or spasms, curing the worst diarrhoea or dysentery in three hours, and restoring healthy action to the diseased organs, enabling them to perform their natural functions, rendering the patient as healthy as before his attack. No person should be without it either at home or abroad. The medicine is put up in small vials, containing six Pills, each sufficient for any one case. Directions accompany each Bottle, with a fac simile of the proprietor's signature. Not genuine without. Price 50 cents per bottle.

READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVES

PROFESSOR WOOD'S Hair Restorative is no doubt the most wonderful discovery of this age of progress, for it will restore, permanently, grey hair to its original color, cover the head of the bald with a most luxuriant growth, remove at once all dandruff and itching, cure all Scrofula and other cutaneous eruptions, such as scald head, &c. It will cure as if by magic, nervous or periodical headache, make the hair soft, glossy, and wavy, and preserve the color perfectly, and the hair from falling to extreme old age. We could give the testimony of more than one hundred thousand to the truth of every word we have written. See circular and the following:

CARLYLE, Ill., June 29, 1855.

I have used Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admitted its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought prematurely grey; but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so.

SIDNEY BREESE,

Ex-Senator United States.

VINCENNES, Ind., June 10, 1853.

Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir—As you are about to manufacture extensively and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it; that I have for several years been in the habit of using other hair restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head from dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance, and all this without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would therefore recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture of hair.

Respectfully yours,

WILSON KING

A gentleman of Boston writes to his friends in New Bedford, thus:

To your inquiries I would reply that when I first commenced using Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, my hair was almost white, and had been so for the last ten years and it was very thin on the top of my head, and very loose and pulled out freely; but I found that before I had used the second bottle up (which was eight weeks) my hair was entirely changed to its original color (light brown) and is now free from dandruff and quite moist. I have had my hair cut five or six times since the change, and have never seen anything like white hair starting from the roots, and it is now as thick as it ever was, and does not come out at all. It has proved in my case all that I could wish or ask.

July 1, 1854. Yours, &c., ——.

GARDINER, Me., June 22, 1855.

Mr. Dyer: Dear Sir—I have used two Bottles of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the hair. Before using it, I was as grey as a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours, &c.,

DANIEL N. MURPHY.

ST. LOUIS, March 7, 1854.

Prof. Wood:—My hair commenced falling off some three or four years since, and continued to do so until I became quite bald. I tried all the popular medicines of the day, but to no effect. At last I was induced to try your celebrated Hair Restorative, and am happy to say it is doing wonders. I have now a fine growth of young hair, and cheerfully recommend its use to all similarly afflicted.

A. C. WILLIAMSON,

136 Second Street.

ST. LOUIS, June 23, 1853.

Prof. Wood:—As you are about to prepare and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, and as you request my opinion of it, I will state that my hair was, a few months ago, very grey; and after using two bottles of your Hair Restorative, it assumed its original color, and since its application all dandruff has disappeared from my head, and I have been troubled with no disagreeable itching of the scalp. I am satisfied those who use it will not regret it, as it gives the appearance of having been recently oiled. I am prepared, therefore, to recommend its use to all who are desirous of having a beautiful head of hair. I am, sir, yours, &c.,

H. L. STEWART.
